

Women, Horse Sports
and Liberation:
Equestrianism and Britain
from the 18th to the 20th Centuries
By Erica Munkwitz

This book is the first, full-length scholarly examination of British women's involvement in equestrianism from the eighteenth through the twentieth centuries, with a focus on the evolution of the side-saddle, the transformation of fox-hunting as a sport, women's riding in the Empire, and the transition from riding aside to riding astride.

The book will be available to purchase at the AGM at a special rate of £50.
